U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Johnson disclosed the traffic citations in our recent reporting appointment. This officer counseled Johnson about his need to abide by the law in relation to his inability to drive. Johnson stated he was trying to go through the License Intervention Program (LIP) program through Hamilton County in order to try and straighten out his driving suspension and actually get his driver's license. This officer had previously counseled Johnson about his need to make the court ordered payments as required. Johnson agreed to make a lump sum payment to catch up on his obligation, which he did on April 9, 2007.

This officer is respectfully recommending no action be taken on the violations and the matters be considered closed.

Respectfully submitted,

Approved,
